

HBIGS Lecture

by

Prof. Dr. Axel Brennicke
(University of Ulm)

„ Life after the PhD – yes, but at the university? “

Date: Wednesday, 12 May 2010

Start of Lecture: 17:00 s.t.

Venue: INF 267 (Bioquant), R041

Abstract:

“HBIGS: Educating tomorrow’s academic elite...” and “...prepare graduates for leading positions - be it in academia, industry or the public sector.”

Big words. Sounds very nice, suggests many options.
Presumably “academia” includes the university – is this realistic? We will take a look at Science at the university and extrapolate from present possibilities to...?

After the lecture, all HBIGS members are invited to join an early evening Get-together at the HBIGS Center (INF 501)
