

HBIGS Career Talk

by

Cyrus Martin, PhD

(Senior Scientific Editor, Current Biology/Cell Press, Cambridge, Massachusetts, USA)

„The Life of a Science Editor“

Date: Tuesday, 18 June 2013

Start of Lecture: 15:00 s.t.

Venue: INF 282 (ZMBH), R001

Abstract:

Are you interested to know what happens behind the scenes when you submit a paper to your favorite journal? Are you considering a career in science publishing?

If so, then please come listen to me, Senior Scientific Editor Cyrus Martin, relate my experiences as an editor at Current Biology, part of the Cell Press group.

I will discuss the specifics of how we handle manuscripts and what other duties the job entails, as well as broader issues, such as the purpose of a general biology journal and what we see as our long term mission. At the end, the lecture is open for any questions.
